MESSAGE FROM THE ORGANIZATION

As we close the chapter on 2025, we wish to express our sincere appreciation to our partners, donors, communities, and dedicated staff. Your continued support and collaboration have been instrumental in advancing our mission and enabling us to serve vulnerable populations with commitment and compassion.

The year 2025 presented a range of challenges, including socio-economic pressures and environmental crises. Despite these difficulties, our commitment to humanitarian service remained unwavering. The unprecedented floods in Pakistan underscored the urgency of our work, and we responded with determination and empathy, delivering critical relief and support to affected communities.

Looking ahead, we remain deeply concerned about the increasing vulnerability of Pakistan to climate change. This is evident in the rising incidence of urban and riverine flooding, cloudbursts, droughts, and other extreme weather events.

In response to these challenges, we call upon the international community to recognize and address these growing risks. Strengthened collaboration and the development of sustainable financing mechanisms will be essential to building resilience, enhancing preparedness, and protecting vulnerable populations in the years to come.
